

INJUNCTION MAY NOT HUP NAMING OF GRANT STATE

Papers Already Issued in Application for Order Restraining County Auditor

Governor After Advisory Vote
Reserves Selection of Gov.

Important Fact
FINN CITIES TELL OF
GOOD POINTS FOR JOB

The capital of new Grant county may not be named this week or next. Papers have been prepared in an application for a writ of injunction, restraining Lee Nichols, auditor of Morton county, from certifying to the secretary of state the returns of the recent election, when division was voted on. The election, so far as division is concerned, was illegal, the applicants claim, inasmuch as one township in the notice published in the Carson Press, it is alleged, was improperly described, the northwest corner being used where the southeast corner should have been specified.

The application will be made this week, it is anticipated, probably before Judge J. M. Hanley. It is rumored that back of this new development is a community, or several communities, who do not like the lines along which Morton county was divided and who are not satisfied with the trend of the race for the county seatship has taken. It is hinted that if an injunction cannot be obtained in district court, the matter will be carried to the supreme court.

New Ipsiz, Carson, Elgin, Brisbane and Leith are engaged in a battle to the finish for the county seat of the recently created Grant county. The decision rests with Governor L. B. Hanna, who has to guide him the first, second and third choice of the chairmen of the various delegations as registered at the hearing held in the house chamber yesterday afternoon. Governor Hanna will announce his decision as soon as he is officially advised that Grant county has been formed. Late yesterday afternoon he had not been so informed, and he did not anticipate a formal notification from the Morton county board of canvassers until Friday.

The procedure adopted in determining the first county seat of Grant is rather confusing. Apparently, the chief executive has no power beyond the appointment of the commissioners to serve the three districts. Into which Grant has been divided. The governor, however, in asking yesterday afternoon for an advisory note from the chairman of the different delegations, considered only the preference for the county seatship. Inasmuch as practically every delegation expressed a different choice for commissioners, and since only one Carson—more full state of three, it is rather difficult to determine just how Mr. Hanna is to arrive at his conclusion.

The Hearing
The house chamber was filled when the governor called the hearing to order at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mr. Hanna announced that everyone would be recognized, whether advocating the name of a town for county seat or urging the appointment of candidates for the commissionerships. To expedite matters, the towns were heard alphabetically.

Brisbane First
Brisbane was heard first through M. M. Hayden, who stated that his community believed it was as well located as any to command the favor of the new county, and that he proposed for commissioner the name of Peter Ferguson of Wade, whom he believed acceptable not only to Brisbane, but to the entire southeastern part of the county. He was seconded by Mr. Luck of Freda, who felt that Brisbane was the proper location for the county seat, and, more particularly, that Ferguson should be a member of the county commission. Mr. Hansen of Raleigh was interested in the commissionership, the county seat, and he insisted that Ferguson should be named to represent his district. Mr. Gross of Stebbins seconded the nomination of Ferguson and also nominated Mr. Wade.

Carson on the Job
Carson was represented by H. H. Halenborg, who had prepared an address which he delivered effectively. He called attention to the fact that Carson was the oldest postoffice in Grant county; that the Carson Press was the oldest and best established newspaper in the new county; that during the past year the Northern Pacific had invested a large amount in a permanent water supply system in Carson; that Carson boasted of the best water west of the Missouri; that good wagon roads led to Carson from the most remote portions of the county; that Carson is the only representative North Dakota town seeking the county seat of Grant, a town not affected by any outside town influences, but which buys its supplies and spends its money in North Dakota; that awkward railroad facilities already have cost the state many thousands of dollars; and that the new seat of government should be accessible not only to every part of Grant county, but to the state capital as well.

Mr. Halenborg closed with an endorsement of John D. Thompson, Thomas E. McDowell and W. E. Scripture for members of the Grant county commission.

HORACE JACKSON

For five days Horace Jackson, 63, of the Chicago board of trade, wandered about in the northern Minnesota woods, with only frozen cranberries to keep him from starving. He had been lost on his hunting trip, after killing a bull moose.

Jackson was ready to give up when his Finn guide came up. The guide, Jackson says, will get $1,000 for the rescue.

THE PAIR OF WAR OVERCASTS PAIR OF RULERS DEATH

German Emperor Is Expected In Vienna Today to Attend Funeral of Francis Joseph

NEW RULER MAY USE
TITLE OF KAISER KARL

Vienna, Nov. 23. The pall of war will overcast the pall of death. There will be only rigidly informal observances of the death of Emperor Francis Joseph. Officials do not want any parade of sorrow.

German news dispatches claim that the new ruler will be called Kaiser and King Karl, the first. Kaiser Wilhelm is expected to arrive in Vienna this afternoon.

The death of the monarch was caused by a cold that he caught while walking in Schoenbrunn park, ten days ago. Pneumonia of the right lung developed.

Emperor Joseph practically died in the harness. He arose at his usual hour Tuesday and engaged in governmental business and received his daughter at 8:00 p. m., and two hours later gave an audience to Foreign Minister Burian.

Entente Press Bitter.
The journals of the Entente Powers are especially bitter in their comments. This, from the Matin, Paris, is typical:
"The sinister old man who for 63 years wore the double crown, disappeared too soon, notwithstanding his 86 years, for he has not seen the approaching hour of expiration of the crimes for which he will bear eternally in history a crushing responsibility. But the specter of punishment must have haunted his later days if this man, so monstrously indifferent as he was accessible to any feeling whatever, this man who witnessed, unwept, the worst catastrophes heaped up by fate on his family and his country. The irony of fate! If he had disappeared from the scene three years sooner, the world would have forgotten his calculating cowardice, his ferocious egotism, his hypocrisy, and would have remembered only the private and public misfortunes which marked almost all the years of his reign, without reflecting that these misfortunes were all deserved. But justice has not permitted that he swindle the world out of this supreme homage. It has made for his death a setting of reprobation and horror."

President Wilson today sent the following message of condolence to Emperor Karl Franz Josef, of Austria-Hungary upon receipt of word of the death of the late emperor, Francis Joseph:
"I beg of your majesty and the imperial and royal family to accept the sincerest sympathy of Mrs. Wilson and myself in the great loss, which you have sustained in the death of your illustrious uncle for whom I entertained sentiments of high esteem and regard."

Extend Condolences.
"I also extend to your majesty the condolences of the government and people of the United States and convey to you my best wishes for your personal well being and prosperity."

The president addressed the new ruler as, "His Majesty Karl Franz Josef, emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia and Apostolic King of Hungary."

Emperor Charles VIII, new ruler of Austria-Hungary, exercised his first powers as sovereign by issuing orders confirming the appointments of all the ministers of his aged grand uncle's reign.

HERE FOR SEVERAL DAYS.
Jesse Crow of Beulah is spending several days in Bismarck. He is registered at the Grand Pacific.

$3,000,000 IN BETS.
New York, Nov. 23. The last stakeholders who have been holding to the finish until Hughes conceded Wilson's election, are paying bets. It is estimated $3,000,000 changed hands this afternoon.

Nov. 23. Charles Evans Hughes, defeated candidate for president of the United States, last evening sent President Wilson congratulations upon his re-election. Convinced that the president had carried California beyond a quibble, Mr. Hughes forwarded formal expressions of good will.

President Wilson replied briefly as follows:
"I am sincerely obliged to you for your message of congratulation. Allow me to assure you my good wishes for years to come."

The exchange of congratulations were delayed because Republican leaders had hoped that California, upon an official count, might be found in the Hughes column. The count in that state is practically completed and Republican leaders insisted that there was no basis for a recount or contest. That was the word which Mr. Hughes had been waiting for. In his telegram, Mr. Hughes said: "Because of the closeness of the vote I have awaited the official count in California and now that it has been virtually completed permit me to extend to you my congratulations upon your re-election. I desire also to express my best wishes for a successful administration."

FAIRBANKS, TOO.
Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23. Charles Fairbanks telegraphed congratulations to Thomas Marshall on his election as vice president.

NORTH DAKOTA COMITY COMMISSION ELIGIS MATTHEWS ITS HEAD

(Special to the Tribune.)
Fargo, N. D., Nov. 23. The North Dakota Comity commission meeting here this afternoon elected the following officers for the coming year: President, W. M. Matthews, Grand Forks; vice president, A. E. Peterson, Fargo; and secretary, W. C. Lyon of Valley City. The executive committee consists of the above and the Rev. T. A. Olsen of Jamestown.

The proposal for the federation of churches at Wildrose was referred to the committee.

Three Large Firms Burglarized
Last Tuesday Evening Foot
Nets About $300

Police headquarters this morning got word of a series of burglaries pulled in Fargo Tuesday, in which the DeLandre department store, the Christian Drug company and the Pure Food store were visited. Description of the articles taken from each place was sent here.

The sum of $100 in cash was taken from the DeLandre department store and about $100 in articles; drugs to the amount of about $150 and cash amounting to 49 cents were taken from the drug store, and about $400 in pens and pliers from the Pure Food store.

FARMER KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE SPILL

George Stickle of Diesem, La.
Moure County, Meets Death
Under Car He Was Driving

La. Moure, N. D., Nov. 23. George Stickle of Diesem, La. Moure county, was killed this week, when the car he was driving overturned at a point a short distance from Diesem. The other occupants of the car, Corrie Drenth and Gott Bigelow, also living in the Diesem neighborhood, jumped and escaped with slight bruises.

The accident happened when Stickle lifted one hand from the steering wheel to his cap to pull down his carlapp. The car began to veer to one side of the road and in pulling the machine back into position, he turned too quickly.

SUBMARINE OF GERMANY SENT DOWN

Reported American Surgeons
Were On Board the Hospital

BRITISH PRESS BITTER
IN ITS COMMENTS

Said That Foreign Pledges to
This Country Were Not Observed

London, Nov. 23. Although the admiralty failed to amplify yesterday's statement relative to the sinking of the Britannic, it is thoroughly established that the disaster was the work of a German submarine. The Britannic was known as the most thoroughly equipped of all ocean liners.

The English press and public are bitterly denouncing what they term Teutonic frightfulness. It is known that the Britannic carried no wounded persons, but only regular crew and hospital staff.

MAY CAUSE TANGLE IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS
Washington, Nov. 23. The destruction of the great hospital ship, Britannic, seriously threatens to complicate further the diplomatic tangle between this nation and Germany. Officials, however, want facts before they draw any conclusions. It is reported that the German submarine transgressed pledges made by the imperial government to this nation. Rumors have also reached official quarters here that there were American surgeons on board.

SLAYER OF LATE CARL MAIER IS STILL AT LARGE

Clue After Clue Has Been Traced Without Success Sheriff and Deputies Give Up

(Special to the Tribune.)
Heulah, N. D., Nov. 23. The unknown slayer of the late Carl Maier of Beulah, who was shot while walking along the public highway, about one mile from town, some time ago, is still at large. Clue after clue has been traced without success. The sheriff and his deputies have about given up in despair.

The late Carl Maier was one of the best known and highly respected residents of this village. While walking along the road south of town a man, riding a white horse, suddenly appeared, wrenched the 30-30 rifle Maier was carrying, and shot him twice. Both bullets entered his left side. The victim was found lying on the roadside by a farmer. All efforts to save his life proved fruitless. Maier remained in an unconscious condition practically every minute up to the time of his death, only arousing from his state of coma long enough to inform those about him that a man on a white horse had committed the foul deed.

A posse was organized and the woods scoured without success. The desperado had made good his escape.

CAR DESTROYED BY FIRE

Seven Passenger Touring Car

tally Destroyed Yesterday

The seven-passenger, six-cylinder Studebaker owned by G. M. Mandigo, proprietor of the Peoples Cash grocery, at 210 Fifth street, was totally destroyed by fire, a half mile north of the capitol yesterday afternoon. Mandigo was in the car at the time when he noticed flames shooting from under the hood. Efforts to save it proved of no avail. The car was practically new and was insured for about half its value.

Washington, Nov. 23. An increase in the nation's transportation facilities would help shatter the high cost of living. A. P. Thom, counsel for the railways, told the Newlands congressional railway investigation committee today.

Thom says that roads are now laboring under burdens which prevent the successful marketing of their securities and result in a consequent lack of development.

CHICAGO FIRE REASON FOR COMING WEST

Funeral services over the remains of the late Louis A. Larson, 37 years a farmer and a cattle king in western North Dakota, who passed away at the Bismarck hospital yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, will be held from the Swedish Lutheran church, between Sixth and Seventh streets, tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The Rev. E. F. Alfson, pastor of the church, will be in charge of the service. Interment will be made an hour later in Fairview cemetery. The pallbearers will be old-time friends of the late king.

Relatives Arrive For Obsequies.
Relatives who arrived in the city today, to be present at the last rites, are John Satterlund of Washburn, N. D., brother-in-law of the late Louis A. Larson; Miss Lu Satterlund of Washburn, editor of the Washburn Leader, and Floyd Satterlund, also of Washburn. Many neighbors and relatives from the district north of Bismarck are also expected to attend.

Chicago Fire Destroyed Home.
Born in Sweden in the year 1843, Larson emigrated to America at the age of 21 years, locating in Chicago, where he for several years worked at the carpenter trade. In that city he was married to Miss Marie Satterlund. The great Chicago fire destroyed their home and all their belongings. The couple then left for the west, locating at Minneapolis and later at Duluth, where he worked at his trade.

Came Here in Year 1873.
Mr. and Mrs. Larson came to the western part of North Dakota on July 1, 1873, he taking a quarter section of land as a homestead that year. This he farmed up until the time of his death. He purchased other holdings in the territory 14 miles north of here and at one time owned close to four sections. His land possessions at the time of death amounted to about nine quarters. Three years ago last summer he sold his cattle and devoted his time to farming. It was about that time he experienced his first stroke of paralysis, which, coupled with two more during this month, caused his death.

Five Children Survive.
Besides the widow, five children survive. They are: John A. Larson of Bismarck, superintendent of the F. H. Carpenter yards in this district; William A. Larson, who resides on a farm north of this city; Frank Larson, in the mercantile business at Harmon, N. D., and Lester and Miss Mabel Larson, who live on the old homestead.

TEN DAYS ADDITIONAL FOR CURSING AT COURT

James Quinn, Familiarly Known as Casey, Visits Police Station Involuntarily

It cost James Quinn, familiarly known to many in Bismarck as Casey, just ten days additional when he cursed in police court this morning at the sentence of 20 days imposed by Judge Dolan. The charge was disorderly conduct. It was alleged that Casey mixed with a John Doe in Higgins pool room last night.

"I don't know it couldn't be any less," said Casey when Judge Dolan had sentenced him to 20 days in the county jail. Other utterances followed aimed both at the judge and the city attorney.

"Ten days additional," said the judge.

Casey was silent.

HEADLOCK ON MEXICAN CRISIS

Atlantic City, Nov. 23. The Mexican-American border question re-solves itself into a question of American reason and Mexican pride. Each side is adhering stubbornly to its contentions. Americans are willing to withdraw troops. The Mexicans want the right of crossing the United boundary after the bandits. The United States is unwilling to accede.

DEMANDED JURY TRIAL.
Effe Brock, colored, arrested by the police the latter part of last week on a warrant sworn to several months ago, charging disorderly conduct, demanded through her attorney, F. H. New Rulers
Of Austria

Archduke Charles Francis Joseph and his wife, Archduchess Zita, the new rulers of Austria. Before the aged emperor's death Archduke Charles had been chosen co-regent. The occasion was the 68th anniversary of the aged emperor's reign, the longest in history. At the time of the death of Francis Joseph, the Archduke was in nominal command of the Teuton armies in Transylvania and the Carpathians.

More Ground Taken.
To the north, in the Alt valley, on both sides of the river, and in the Rothernburg mass sector more ground has been taken from the Roumanians by the Teutonic allies, while in the region around Compulung the Roumanians in a strong offensive have been held in their tracks by the stiffening of the front of the invaders.

Late reports from Berlin concerning the fighting near Monastir are to the effect that northeast of the town attacks by Entente troops against the German-Bulgarian front failed.

Paris press has announced that the Germans and Bulgarians were offering strong resistance along the new line.

On the extreme western flank of the Macedonian theatre, between Lake Presba and Ochrida, the Bulgarian forces have come into contact. Paris records the capture by the Teutonic troops of the town of Leskovba on the west bank of Lake Presba.

The Turks have launched a heavy attack against Sultana Bad, Persia, but were repulsed with heavy casualties by the Russians, according to Petrograd.

After a long silence imposed by the direct wish of General Falkenhayn, who did not wish to have any hopes raised by premature accounts of his operations, descriptions of the successful victory of the Teutonic forces in the battle of Tirgu-Jiu which broke the resistance of the Roumanian armies in western Wallachia and opened the way to the Roumanian plain, is now available. The battle was fought from November 15 to 17, after the German and Austro-Hungarian forces in a week of steady combats, had forced their way through the summits of the mountains on the Roumanian-Transylvanian frontier to the foot of the Alpine regions, mastering the armored fortifications with big mortars and breaking the Roumanian resistance wherever it was encountered.

Ejected from the wild, mountainous regions to the rolling foothills beyond, the Roumanians, who by now had received heavy Russian reinforcements, elected to stand on the range of hills running east and west and lying south of Tirgu-Jiu, the first important town south of the mountain. The position was naturally strong and a heavy fog enabled the Roumanians to take up their positions unharmed by the pursuers.

The German and Austro-Hungarian forces attacked them with fervor and after three days of heaviest fighting, crushed their way by frontal attacks through the middle-of-the-Roumanian line from the Jiu to the Filo rivers. The Roumanian losses in the battle are described as very heavy.

The German cavalry had been held in readiness behind the line and the squadrons now poured through the breach and raced down through the valley towards the railway 30 miles away, driving before them the fleeing Russians and Roumanians and breaking the efforts at resistance of all but the strongest units which still held together.

Virginia

L. G. Boddge, farmer of Tuttle, who's sudden disappearance from his home near that place during the first of the month caused much uneasiness among members of the family and relatives, has been located at the home of his folks in West Virginia.

"We have located Boddge. He is in West Virginia with his folks." This information was communicated to Chief of Police Downing this morning from G. W. Galbreath, a neighbor to the Boddges living in that state.

Boddge's left Tuttle for Bismarck the second of this month to be examined for entrance into the tubercular sanatorium at Dunsmuir. He wrote the officials of that hospital to expect him about the seventh.

His failure to appear resulted in the police here being notified and circulars being sent broadcast.

habitual cheerfulness, and none but her most immediate friends was prepared for her demise.

Mrs. Casey came to North Dakota with her husband 20 years ago. They had been schoolmates in La Crosse, sweethearts from childhood. The young couple settled in Grafton, where Mr. Casey, newly created a barrister took up the practice of law. There they remained for 14 years, during which time he was elected to the state legislature. Six years ago Mrs. Casey accompanied her husband to Dickinson, where they had since resided.

Prominent in club work throughout the state, a woman of unusual culture and talent, the deceased was above everything else a homemaker. There were no children, and Mr. and Mrs. Casey had lived only for one another. The husband, who was met here by numerous friends last evening, is prostrated with grief.

Funeral at Dickinson. Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Patrick's church in Dickinson, Rev. Father John Digmann officiating. Practically all of the representative citizens of the Stark county seat attended to pay their final respects to the deceased.

help, just try this pleasant tasting home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 25c. boxes of Pinex (25c. cents worth). Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Thus prepared, you have a pint of really remarkable cough remedy that can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief at all times.

You can feel this took hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine New-way extract, combined with quinine and is noted for its speed in overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.
Its millions of enthusiastic users have made it famous the world over.

There are many worthless imitations of this noted mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "25c. boxes of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, now with each preparation.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect Head.

Because of its tonic and laxative effects, Laxative Bromo Quinine can be taken by anyone without causing nervousness or ringing in the head.
There is only one "Bromo Quinine."

HONEST MAN IN POLICE COURT THIS MORNING

Donovan Tells Court He Met Nottles With Two Legs and That

Two Attacked It

"Judge, I met a bottle on the street and a couple of us attacked it." That was the explanation James Donovan, a stranger who said he saw Don-Carleton, gave to Judge Dolan in police court this morning, when arraigned to answer to the charge of being drunk.

"Y-yep," stammered the prisoner,
"I had two legs." Despite the efforts of City Attorney McCurdy to learn who this bottle was, Donovan proved as stubborn as a mule. Anyway, he agreed with the attorney that the eagle stuff had a "kick." He also confessed to drinking some bay rum purchased at a drug store.

Donovan was arrested at the Northern Pacific station last evening. He told the police he has been working at Carleton since being released from custody here on the 10th of June and that he made $800 and was "drunk, eye, eye, night."

He was sentenced to serve ten days in the county jail.

INJUNCTION MAY HOLD UP NAMING OF GRANT SEAT

Morton county in 1883, and who also endorsed Thompson and McDowell.
For Elgin

F. G. Boettcher, as chairman of the Elgin delegation, advanced the following reason why his town should be made county seat:

Elgin serves a greater territory north and south than any other town in the new county; Elgin offers the people of Grant a short drive by wagon and automobile and the long haul by rail; Elgin offers an opportunity to every resident of the county to visit frequently the seat of government; Elgin offers a saving in village for county commissioners and other officials; Elgin offers a county seat of which all Grant county may be proud; Elgin has sprung up from nothing in a few years; it has good water; good concrete sidewalks; a white way; a village park; is one of the prettiest places in Grant county, and has not one penny's worth of bonded indebtedness.

Elgin declared as its candidates for the county commission Mr. Boettcher and Frank Bleick.

Mr. Freytag, speaking for Elgin, called attention to the town's $280,000 in bank resources, which he believed greater than those of any other town in Grant county, and to the fact that Elgin is served by both the Milwaukee and the Northern Pacific railroads.

Minor and Pretty Rock representatives also appeared for Elgin.

A. W. Patterson spoke as chairman of the Leith delegation. He referred to Leith as the only town in the exact geographical center of the new county;
as a community only seven years old, but one thoroughly progressive, and with a location most accessible to the greatest number of people. Any farmer in the county, he asserted, can drive to Leith and return home the same day. A majority of the people of Grant county, he declared, are for Leith. Even far-away St. Joe, in the extreme northwest corner of the county, is for Leith. Patterson referred to the abundant coal within two miles of Leith, and to the fact that farmers drive in from a radius of twenty miles to procure this fuel.

Leith, he stated, offered the county as a temporary county building a structure three stories high, with a full basement, and occupying a ground space 36 by 80 feet, admirably suited in every way to the purpose. Paterson endorsed for county commissioners William Wade of Wade, P. K.
Hague of Minor and Fred Ewald, of New Leipzig.

For Ferguson and Wade
Major Walden of Shields announced that he favored no particular town for county seat but did endorse Ferguson and Wade for commissioners.

A. H. Nieter, president of the State Bank of New Leipzig, declared for Ewald, Jr., J. J. Rusch and P. J.
Schoettler for commissioners, called attention to New Leipzig's two railroads, and commented upon its good roads, serving a territory 24 miles north and south. New Leipzig, he declared, is accommodating more Grant county people than any other town in the new county. Some commercial statistics which he gave for 1915 follow: Freight business, $107,544; telephone, $45,000; blacksmithing, $4,500;
auto and horse repairs, $18,857; grain, 476,000 bushels; hardware and implements, $45,121.92; general merchandise, $115,030.05; lumber and machinery,
$271,345.14; banking loans, etc., $1-084,975.58. In the eight townships served by New Leipzig on the western frontier of Grant, declared the banker, there are 655 farms of 240 acres each, of which fifty per cent of the acreage is under cultivation.

Others Speak
George Schultz spoke for Elgin; A.
J. Herbert of Minor, for Leith; George Karr, 26 years in the county, for Carson; Neil McGarry of Paradise, for Leith; Joseph Haggar for Leith; Mr.
Ezra of St. Joseph, for Leith; Mr.
McGinnis for Boettcher and Bleick;
J. J. Ryan, for Leith; Wade and Ferguson, candidates for commissioners, and Urell, for sheriff, had nothing to say.

C. C. Leonard of Raleigh declared neutrality; Charles W. Bleick, of Elgin, recently elected member of the state railroad commission, was not interested; James Clottee of Brisbane, was for Leith. Joseph Miller of Elgin stated his town could give New Leipzig one better on grain, having shipped 492,000 bushels in 1915; that it was the largest freight station on the Mott line, outside of Mott; and that in 1914 more freight was received and dispatched at Elgin than at any other town on the Mott branch.

Favors Center
Clark Hill, a pioneer, favored the location of the seat of government as near the center of the county as possible; Frank Bleick of Heil was for Elgin; George Knudsen was for Leith and co-pastor business man, one county representative, J. S. S. S. S. S. moral community, A. B. Heggenann was for Elgin, on the strength of its superior hotel accommodations; E. A.
Peterson spoke for Carson; Martin Calstead for Leith; Raleigh for C. C.
Leonard as a member of the county ### board, and various other delegates for their favorites.

After everyone had spoken, the governor stated the selection of commissioners for Grant had been much on his mind; that it had come to a point where he had dreamed of the problem, and that he would follow the dictates of his dream in sub-stituting to the chairman of each delegation a blank upon which might be registered the choice for county seat, first, second and third. The vote, Mr. Hanna declared, would be regarded as absolutely confidential, and the result would be announced as soon as he was officially empowered to select the commissioners for the new county.

Little time was lost by the chairmen in declaring their preference, and after the votes had been delivered to the governor, adjournment was taken.

Unless something unforeseen intervenes, the governor's selection of the three commissioners will be announced Friday. These commissioners will name a county seat, for two years at least, and all county officers for that period. They also will supervise the transcription of Morton county records affecting Grant county; the transfer of property, and the collection of taxes due Grant.

THE WINTER OF GREAT DISTRESS

Damp and Cold Weather is destined to Cause Much Suffering
Among Rheumatics Guard Against It

Get ready for winter by realizing that Rheumatism is a blood disease and must be relieved through the blood. Throw away the liniments and lotions, cut out the pain killers and stake your chances of relief on S. S. S.
Some of the most renowned physicians that the world has ever known have been studying Rheumatism for fifty years in the laboratories of the Swift Specific Company in Atlanta, and if Rheumatism can be permanently relieved and WE KNOW THAT IT CAN they will tell you what to do for your trouble.

Rubbing with liniments, blistering,
the application of plasters, in fact,
anything that will produce counter-irritation, is good for external treatment of Rheumatism, but these stu-ple remedies do not reach the seat of the disease nor touch the real cause, and relief is therefore only temporary.

Rheumatism is due to Uric Acid and other irritant poisons in the blood, and as it circulates through the system, these acid poisons are deposited in the muscles, joints and nerves, and exposure to the night air, cold east winds, or any sudden change in the weather, will bring on an attack which may last for a few days or linger for months. Every battle with Rheumatism leaves the blood in poorer condition, while the corroding acids are gradually consuming the oils and fluids that lubricate the muscles and joints, thus they become stiff, sometimes absolutely rigid.

Rheumatism with its sharp cutting pains cannot be conquered until the acid blood is cleansed, purified, literally washed free of the poisoned substances which it contains, and nothing affords such prompt and lasting relief as S. S. S. The tonic effects of this vegetable remedy are wonderful. The blood is cleansed, purified and its early strength and vigor restored, causing the health to rapidly improve and build up the entire system. The sufferer is not only free from Rheumatic pains, but experiences once more the thrill and exquisite pleasure of perfect health.

Get rid of Rheumatism before cold weather makes it worse. Don't take substitutes for S. S. S. Write our Medical Department at once; they want to advise you how to relieve Rheumatism quickly, thoroughly and make you well. S. S. S. sold at all drug stores. Don't accept substitutes they are dangerous. Write the Swift Specific Company, Medical Department, Room 16, Atlantic Ga.

FRANCIS JOSEPH.

Europe was prepared many months for the death of Francis Joseph. His demise cannot affect materially the course of the war except to tighten the grip of German influence in the dual empire.

The ambitions of the Austrian monarch to extend the sphere of his empire's influence to the Balkans was undoubtedly the direct cause of the war. It was the signal for hostilities to begin, although there were deeper and more vital reasons for the great war that embroiled more than half the world.

History will give this man his place. History alone can do it. No estimate can be written at a time like this. His enemies will say that the blood of Europe is upon his hands.

The Paris critics call him the "sinister old man" who, for "fifty-eight years," was the double crown.

Whether he will bear eternally the responsibility of the European catastrophe no man can say now.

The papers of the Entente Powers are merciless in their comment, but we, far removed from the reeking shambles of Europe, can view the long reign of sixty-eight years more temperately.

It was no easy task to guide the destinies of the polyglot nation. He took the reins of government in 1849 when revolutions were impending. Much of his regime has been a struggle by internal troubles. His immediate family were marked for slaughter by anarchists and other enemies of the Hapsburgs.

Regardless of what his responsibility for this war may have been, and even that has not been determined definitely, he possessed many admirable qualities.

The future of Austria is problematical. Doubtless German influence will continue to grow under the exigencies of the war.

SHOP EARLY.

What does Christmas mean to you? Sit down alone tonight and think it over.

If it means merely the trading of a few gifts with a few friends, the filling of some children's stockings, the gorging of dinner, a drowsy smoke and an afternoon nap, something is wrong with your heart and your head.

If this is all it means to you, your particular brand of Christmas spirit is no better than the candles on your family Christmas tree. It rays shine for home consumption only.

Yet this is the full-bellied, exclusive, comfortable, selfish way most of us celebrate the holiest day of the year.

What a parody on the truth that drew the three wise men to the manger in Palestine, that brought the first ray of hope to the poor and oppressed, that sent martyrs singing to their death, that spurred huge armies on to the Crusades, and that has lived through two thousand years of human cussedness.

There's nothing new in all this. The best thing about Christmas is that it is gloriously old, and so is every thought connected with it.

So there is nothing new in the suggestion that you consider for a moment a certain girl who stands all day behind a counter and sells to other folks a lot of beautiful things she'll never be able to own herself. Christmas to her means tedious hours in bed with aching feet and torn nerves. For her, last minute shoppers have turned the day on which the Christ was born into a nightmare.

Why don't you get busy and buy those trinkets NOW, instead of waiting until the 23rd or 24th? You wouldn't rob a shop full of her purse, why rob her of her Christmas?

A magazine reports the inventor of a collapsible Christmas tree holder. We thought they were all like that.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?
Plan State Coal Body.
Farzo, N. D., Nov. 20. Creation of a state coal commission on which representatives of various commercial centers of the state would act is proposed locally to avoid the possibility of a coal shortage in North Dakota.

With calls for coal supplies already coming from numerous towns, the situation is considered here as grave.

The item reproduced above appeared on the front page of the Chicago Tribune. To those who know the real conditions in this state, the idea is absurd.

But who is responsible for sending these articles broadcast, giving the impression that North Dakota is in danger of freezing up this winter because of a coal famine?

The article carries a Fargo date line. That is all there is to fix its identity. We can hardly believe that the Fargo Commercial club countenances this kind of publicity.

That organization might apply itself profitably to a censorship of such news. The proper influence brought to bear will soon correct the abuse.

The vast lignite deposits protect North Dakota for ages against a coal famine. It may take that long for the East and certain papers in the Red River valley to appreciate the boundless deposits of lignite in this state.

EVENING PAPER BETTER.

Valley City Times-Record: The Bismarck Tribune has changed from a morning to an evening paper. The chief reason for this change is the fact that the evening paper gives better service. In every city and community where only one daily is required, it must be conceded that the evening sheet has a decided superiority. It goes into homes at an hour of the day when it is read, thus giving the advertiser a tremendous advantage. For all purposes the evening newspaper is the better.

ACCEPT OUR THANKS.

Jameson Daily Capital: The Bismarck Tribune is greatly improved by its new change to an evening paper and its better make-up.

AS READ TRIBUNE: 33 YEARS AND SURVIVED TO TELL THE STORY

H. A. Armstrong, the well known Hazleton attorney, was in the Capital City last evening enroute to McKenzie and Steele, where he has legal matters to look after.

When Mr. Armstrong came to North Dakota 33 years ago, one of his first acts was to subscribe for The Bismarck Tribune. He has been a subscriber and a constant reader of The Tribune ever since, and he "reckons he has sort of acquired the habit."

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong probably will spend the winter in Florida, after a visit to his old home on the eastern border of Ohio.

FROM MCKENZIE.

S. M. Clizbe, one of the well-known business men of McKenzie, is in the city today visiting friends and attending to business transactions.

URIC ACID POISONING

The most eminent physicians recognize that uric acid stored up in the system is the cause of rheumatism, that this uric acid poison is present in the joints, muscles, or nerves. By experimenting and analysis at the Invalid Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce discovered a combination of native remedies that he called Anuric which drives out the uric acid from the system, and in this way the pain, swelling and inflammation subside. If you are a sufferer from rheumatism, backache, pains here or there, you can obtain Anuric at any drug store and get relief from the pains and ills brought about by uric acid.

Swollen hands, ankles, feet are due to a dropical condition, often caused by disordered kidneys. Naturally, when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous uric acid, which settles in the tissues of the feet, ankles, wrists or back as uric acid salts, or under the eyes in bag-like formation.

It is just as necessary to keep the kidneys acting properly as to keep the bowels active to rid the body of poisons.

The very best possible way to take care of your self is to take a glass of hot water before meals and an Anuric tablet. In this way it is readily dissolved with the food, picked up by the blood and finally reaches the kidneys, where it has a cleansing and tonic effect.

Stop into the drug store and ask for a packet of Anuric, or for trial packet. Anuric—many times more potent than lithia, eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar. A short trial will convince you.

GOVERNOR FRAZIER LOOKS OVER PRISON

Intends to Visit All State Institutions Before January 1, if Possible

Governor-elect Lynn J. Frazier spent yesterday forenoon in a careful and intelligent inspection of the North Dakota penitentiary. The prospective chief executive poked into every department of the prison; asked a lot of questions, and departed apparently well satisfied with North Dakota's present method of caring for its delinquents.

During the afternoon, Frazier visited the Mandan Reformatory school, where Governor James Devine, the superintendent, took pleasure in showing the new executive what the institution has and what it has not. Very largely by the latter, for an handsome amount of improvement and alteration will be required to make the school 100 per cent efficient and Devine will never be content until that standard has been attained.

Frazier is making, at his own expense, a tour of inspection of all the state penal and charitable institutions. He hopes to complete this survey before the legislature convenes and to know something of the subject when the new appropriation bills are presented.

P-FARGE PUREBLOODS. PROMISE PRODUCTIVE. PROSPEROUS PERIOD.
H. O. Pearce, manager of the Rex ranch, southeast of Mott, was about the happiest man in North Dakota this week, when he came to Bismarck to arrange a proper reception for a carload of pureblood Holsteins, which will be utilized to improve the Rex strain.

The Rex ranch is owned by easterners. Kid-gloved, tender-foot, perhaps. But they have made a success of ranching under the new regime. They go in for live stock and farming combined, and they do not on purebred stock, and there isn't a much finer bunch of cattle to be found anywhere than they have down in the Mott country.

This week's shipment of Holsteins came from Winnipeg. They were real prizefighters, worthy progenitors of the Rex herd to be.

DEPARTMENT PAYS FOR ITSELF AND LEAVES A NICE MARGIN RESIDUES
One of the most important of the several state departments, governed by commissions rather than by an elective official, is the office of the state bank examiner. North Dakota abounds with state banks, upon which there is no other check than that imposed by the state banking board, through the bank examiner.

The office of state examiner is self-supporting. Two years ago the department estimated that $38,100 would be required to care for it during the biennial period. It was also "calculated" that fees to this amount would be earned by the examiner's office during the two years.

As a matter of fact, the state bank examiner's office during the first year, ending July 1, 1916, cost the state but $40,021.35, and it is believed that the present fiscal year will make a showing equally good. The first year's balance of $4,028.67 on the credit side of the ledger remains in the general fund, to be used for any other needful purpose. The budget for the next two years will not be increased, which will be somewhat of an exception to the general rule, as a majority of the state departments have found that they did not ask for enough two years ago.

All fees of the state bank examiner's office go to the state treasurer and are not credited to the department, which is on a regular appropriation basis. G. I. Johnson, the bank examiner, in his report to the budget committee, makes no especial comment on the good showing of the past year and a half. It is a matter of record, however, that in previous years there has been common a deficit where this year there is a surplus.

ANNOUNCEMENT WAS PRIMA-FACIE EVIDENCE, BUT PERHAPS
Charles W. Bleick, one of the newly elected Non-Partisan members of the North Dakota railroad commission, is in Bismarck in connection with the Grant county fight for the seat of government. Bleick hails from Elgin, one of the prominent contestants for the honor, but he is taking no active part in the scrap.

The Elgin man was prominently mentioned in the Fargo press recently as the prospective chairman of the railroad commission. That announcement, says Bleick, was premature, not that he would not accept the honor, should the lightning choose to strike him. At least one member of the new commission has real railroad experience, as Bleick showed coal for the Union Pacific between Cheyenne and Laramie quite some new years ago, and he is quite familiar with the game, as it looks to the man on the track.

CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF OF NEW COUNTY MAN OF MANY KNAT EXPERIENCES
Among the Grant county people who were in Bismarck yesterday and today in connection with the county seatship was one whose autobiography would make every bit as good reading as that of Col. Cody (Buffalo Bill) which is now running in a periodical.

"Bully," Urell, the individual referred to, after serving through the civil war came to the northwest, where he entered the Indian service. Urell was chief of Indian police at the time of the notorious Spicer family murder, when an entire family was wiped out in a dispute over the purchase price of a horse, and it was he who rounded up the slayers and turned them over to the Edmunds county authorities.

Urell is a mild-mannered man, who would not be accused on first sight of daring deeds. He is modest, too, and it is only through his friends to the early days that his exploits are to be learned. Incidentally, this veteran of many sanguinary battles is a candidate for sheriff of the new county—not that peaceful Grant particularly requires a hard-boiled man of that hue, but for the reason that Urell believes his long acquaintance with the country and its people, as well as his general training, fit him for the place.

IT'S GOING TO BE MORE DIFFICULT TO GET A WEE DROP NOW
It's going to be a heap harder to raise a wee drop in North Dakota after the first of the year.

Official returns given out by Secretary of State Hall yesterday show that in 24 counties the bootlegging amendment has a majority of 4,075. The vote, as reported by the county canvassing boards to date, stands 22,354 to 18,499. There have been no big majorities for or against in any counties, and it is predicted that the 25 shires yet to be heard from will run true to form, and that the final result has been presaged in the present returns.

The bootlegger amendment, patterned after the famous "hauling ordinance" drafted for Bismarck several years ago by City Attorney McCurdy, is aimed particularly at the friendly tax-man or cab driver who "hasn't a tiling, but knows where he can get it for you." Heretofore it has been difficult to convict the man who has proven that he was merely an agent for the purchaser. The bootlegger amendment does after the go-between and makes him the goat. Therefore, going between may be expected to become an unpopular diversion in North Dakota.

Denver claims to have adopted an ordinance this week which will forever put out of business the bootlegger in the city. If Denver's ordinance is any more drastic than North Dakota's amendment, it must "go some."

And it must not be forgotten that there will be behind this amendment one William Langer of Mandan, the man who cleaned up Morton county, and the sworn foe of all illicit liquor traffic. A more powerful weapon could not have been placed in the hands of the new attorney general, and Langer's friends are convinced that his inhumanity will spell decided aidfulness for the Blackfeet state.

TRAPPING BEAVERS TO SAVE FARMERS NOT V-RY LUCKATIVE PROFESSION

The average individual who has been asked to fork over for a beaver collar or real beaver coat, or anything else in which the little masonic tailed critter's hide enters has visions of Galconada when it is reported that State Game Warden William Reko has appointed professional trappers to garner the little varmints who have been making life miserable for so many Missouri slope farmers.

As a matter of fact, Mr. Reko advises, the campaign of extermination will no more than barely pay for itself. Pelts at this time of year are not "prime." They do well to bring $5.00 in spite of the value of the skin may have formed of the value of this much coveted fur. Beaver pelts are at their best in March, when they will probably average $8.00 the hide. Just now, when the state game department is compelled by the numerous complaints of farmers to do what the laws of North Dakota prohibit any ordinary individual from doing, i. e. trap beavers during a closed season which will not expire for several years, not for buyer will pay a top price for the pelts.

Free Versus Beavers
Among all North Dakota fur-bearing animals, beaver are, perhaps, the most valuable. The question the state game and fish wardens have had to decide is whether beaver are more important in the development of the state than trees. Beaver are plentiful and native to the land. Trees in many regions are foreign to the soil and must be carefully cultivated. An ambitious beaver can easily put a ten-year-old tree out of business in an hour. Furthermore, the industrious little creatures, build dams across any stream which they may take a fancy to; flood the bottom lands and drown the farmer's crops. The old-time ranchman, who had so many cattle that he didn't care to count 'em, and to whom a cow more or less meant little, admired the beaver, because he did dam up the creeks and create a natural reservoir which furnished the herds with drinking water during the dry season. The present day stockman finds the beaver-dam an expert trap for his pure-blood stock. The beaver is most deceptive; the big Herford or Shorthorn, or Durham or Holstein ventures out on the apparently dry land, crashes through the brush, is caged, and dies there. The modern stockman finds an occasional well and a windmill much more economical than the beaver reservoir. And even he, today, has deserted the aquatic mason.

State Game Warden Reko has two experienced trappers engaged west of the river exterminating the excess beaver population. They may turn over to the state game and fish department enough pelts to pay for their services, but they are not expected to earn any great profit.

Warden Reko has just returned from a meeting of the state fish and game board at Fargo where it was recommended that a five-years closed season be adopted to preserve prairie chicken in the first congressional district. Reko does not hope for a great deal from a closed season on prairie chicken. He feels they are doomed in all of the more thickly populated sections of the state. He does believe that an open season on beaver, which would result in their almost complete extermination, or, at least, in greatly reducing their number, would be most advisable.

CAPITAL VISITOR

Former Senator Leslie Shoupson of Dickinson, visited the capitol this week and told some new O'Connor stories.

TURNING CORNERS

The morning following the receipt of definite election returns on the state, an ancient retainer of North Dakota showed up at the capitol with a "We Will Stick" button prominently displayed on his lapel. "If anybody can turn a corner, I can," said the new recruit.

BOARD TO MEET AGAIN

The budget board, after the formal meeting required by law, has adjourned until Tuesday, November 28, when it is anticipated that all estimates for the ensuing two years will be in, and when the board will really be in a position to do business.

Additional Society News

Popular Concert Tonight.
All is in readiness for the popular concert this evening, which will be given in the Auditorium by local musicians, assisted by August Carl. Solo violinist. The program is replete with voice, piano and violin numbers, and as a special attraction, little Helen Steele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Steele, will give an interpretative dance. It is expected that a nice audience will greet the artists. The program will begin at 8:15.

The Markets

EMBARGO TALK REVEALS PRICES PRICES ON STOCK MARKET SLUMP

High Opening-Slumps-and-Close Reveals Sharp Decline.

Chicago, Nov. 23. Liberal selling, following talk of embargo, caused a decline in wheat today, after a high opening, due to good commission house buying. December was down below today's opening 2 1/4 @ 182 1/4; May down 1 3/4 @ 158 1/4; July down 1 1/4 @ 157 1/4. Corn opened higher on rush to buy, but fell off in reaction that followed. December was down 1 1/4 @ 92 1/4; May down 1 1/4 @ 96 1/4; July down 1 1/4 @ 96 1/4. Oats were slightly lower. December was down 1/2 @ 57 1/4; May down 5/8 @ 61 1/4. Provisions were steady.

New York, Nov. 23. The slump on the stock exchange in shares which have led the market for weeks continued at the opening today. Utah Copper sold down 1 1/4 to 121; Republic Steel broke 1 1/4 to 85 1/4; American Wire Rope preferred was down 1 1/4 at 67, and International Paper lost 1 1/4, selling at 63. Lackawanna was an exception among leaders, advancing 1 1/4 to 103 1/4. United States Steel opened at 125 to 125 1/4 against 125 1/4 at the close yesterday. General list was irregular.

New York, Nov. 23. After selling down to 124 1/4 steel recovered 125 1/4 at 1:30 o'clock, after 185,000 shares trading in million stock market.

ANNUAL CLUB BANQUET WAS STAGORATE AFFAIR

The annual banquet of the Fortnightly club, held Tuesday eve in the home of Dr. and Mrs. N. O. Ramsdell in Fourth street, was one of the most successful social functions yet given by the club. All the appointments of the elaborate affair were in pink and white, the club's colors, and a profusion of chrysanthemums featured.

The sumptuous banquet was served at two long tables and the hour was 7 o'clock. The tables held clusters of chrysanthemums and hand-painted place cards in the shape of butterflies were used. Fred L. Conklin was the toastmaster and responses were made by H. J. Linde, who spoke on "The Modern Priscilla"; Miss Laura B. Sanderson, on "The Outlook"; J. J. Johnson, on "The Commercial West"; Mrs. M. C. Rudolph, on "The American"; and M. J. Martin, on "The Review of Reviews." The subjects covered were names of American magazines and each toast was greatly enjoyed.

On the back of the place cards were written the names of members of presidential families, which in their turn gave humorous stunts. Mr. Martin, Mr. Linde and Mr. Johnson were admitted to membership of the advisory board, composed of the husbands of members. This part of the program furnished considerable amusement, as they were obliged to garb themselves in overalls, canvas gloves, ridiculous looking hats and carry old suitcases. The new members were equal to the task imposed on them in this initiatory ceremony. The affair was in charge of a committee composed of Mrs. C. L. Young, Mrs. Philip Meyer and Mrs. Johnson. They were assisted by young daughters of the members, Miss Marien Goss, Miss Dorothy Moore and Miss Ruth Talcott.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Budlong, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Conklin, Judge and Mrs. E. B. Goss, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Linde, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. William Moore, Judge and Mrs. Nuessle, Dr. and Mrs. Ramsdell, Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Rawlings, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Talcott, E. J. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. George Will, Supt. and Mrs. J. M. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Miss Sanderson, Dr. E. M. Bolton and Mr. Davis.

W. C. Meeting.
The Woman's Relief Corps will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. O. B. Bapies at her home in Fourth street. The meeting will be called at 2:30 and members are asked to attend.

Concludes Visit Here.
Mrs. J. E. Linsen of Berlin, N. D., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. J. Zimmerman of Avenue A, left yesterday for her home. Mrs. Linsen stopped here, enroute from an eastern visit.

To Address Institute.
Miss Laura B. Sanderson, deputy state superintendent of public instruction, left yesterday afternoon for Lincoln, where she will be one of the speakers at the annual Emmons county teachers' institute.

Visiting Daughter.
M. L. Duffield of Superior, Wis., has arrived in the city and will make an extended visit with his daughter Mrs. J. A. Little, of Sixth street. Mr. Little, who has been in Washington, returned last evening.

Lodge to Entertain.
An interesting affair in lodge circles this week will be the social meeting Friday evening, given by the Modern Woodmen Camp No. 4164, in the Knights of Pythias hall. The guests will include the Royal Neighbors, their husbands and visiting Woodmen.

Entertaining Former Resident.
Miss Aldyth Ward of Seventh street is entertaining as her guest, Mrs. Matt Crowley of Hebron. Mrs. Crowley is a former teacher in the public schools and will be remembered as Miss Pauline Shoemaker. She will spend several weeks here.

Makes Short Visit Here.
Miss Clara Milbrandt, who has been for the last several months in Washington, stopped off in the city yesterday enroute to Jamestown and was the guest of Miss Gertrude Hanson of First street. Miss Milbrandt, after a short visit with friends in Jamestown will leave for her home in Minneapolis.

Night Pupils Entertain.
The pupils of the night school were hosts last evening at a dancing party in the Knights of Columbus hall. Over 130 guests attended and the hours were from 9 o'clock to 12. They were assisted by the teachers and Mrs. W. C. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Parsons, Mrs. M. W. Neff and Mrs. W. O. Ward. The affair was one of the most enjoyable yet given for the school.

Wedding Announced.
Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Genevieve Lenech, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bensch of Jamestown, and Clarence Mraz of the same place. Their

LADIES' SECRET TO

DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back Its Color and Lustre With Grandmother's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of trouble.

While gray, faded hair is not fatal, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

For Bismarck Guest.

Monday evening Mrs. George Stiles and Mrs. Frank Poyner were hostesses at a party given in honor of Mrs. Charles Baker of Bismarck, who is visiting at the home of Mrs. John D. Gray. The evening was spent in playing "500" and the honors were awarded to Mrs. Harold Dwight and Mrs. J. E. Jones. A remembrance gift was also given the honor guest, Mrs. Baker, who is a former resident of Valley City, has been entertained at a number of parties while here Valley City Times Record.

IS CRITICALLY ILL.

Mrs. Thomas Cunningham, mother of Mrs. Frank Ryan, is critically ill in the home of Mrs. Ryan in Fourth and Tayer streets. Mrs. Cunningham was hit by an automobile six weeks ago and never recovered from the shock. She is one of the pioneers of the city and is in her 73rd year.

Local artists will entertain for benefit of night school at Auditorium to night.

League Benefit at Success.

Thirteen tables were in play yesterday afternoon for what is the benefit party given in the Knights of Columbus hall by the Civic Improvement league. Mrs. G. D. Mann and Mrs. J. L. Whitney tied for the honor and in a draw it went to Mrs. Whitney. During the afternoon Mrs. Richard Thistlethwaite contributed piano numbers, which were well received. The committee in charge is very much pleased at the co-operation given them by the women of the city.

Woman's Club Meeting.

The Current Events club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. G. R. Squire at her home in Second street. "Central America" was the subject studied and papers were read by Mrs. Alfred Zuger on "Guatemala," Mrs. A. J. Arnot on "Salvador" and Mrs. George Wallace read a paper prepared by Mrs. M. P. Moore on "Nicaragua." Mrs. Squire also read a paper on "As a Republic, and Its Sanitary Conquest," which was held over from the October 11th meeting when Panama was studied. Mrs. F. J. Marcelus played a piano solo and an enjoyable social hour featured.

The Fortnightly club held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon with Mrs. N. O. Ramsdell at her home in Fourth street. The reconstruction period of the United States was studied and interesting papers were read by Mrs. P. R. Smyth on "Factors in Reconstruction," Mrs. M. C. Budlong on "Policies of President and Congress," Mrs. G. J. Johnson on "Process of Reconstruction." The roll call was responded to by phases of the Universal Peace Movement. Mrs. M. J. Martin, wife of the superintendent of the public schools, has been re-

KEEN INTEREST IN

RED CROSS SALE

Will Bismarck lead the state this year in the annual Red Cross Seal sale, which will be held Saturday? This is the question which is confronting the women of the city who are interested in the movement.

For five years the Capital City has held first place and last year made a splendid record by leading the state by $150,000. Altogether, the total sales reached $254,827 at this received the day of the annual sale.

Much keen competition is being shown this year among the various cities and an extra effort will have to be made to hold first place.

Mrs. Fanny Dunn Quinn, who is secretary of the State Anti-Tuberculosis association, is receiving the hearty support of many of the women and girls of the city. Committees are being appointed to take charge of the sales in the business houses, postoffice and state capital building. A levy of young girls will sell on the streets and in the hostesses.

Never in the history of the movement has the demand for seals been so great. Cities all over the state are sending for supplies. Every order is about double that of last year.

Warlike Atmosphere Grips New York on Eve Of Army Navy Classic

New York, Nov. 23. The advance guard of spectators is already in possession of the leading hotels this afternoon and the registers read like the roster of a military naval gathering. Uniformed officers of both branches of the service and the rival academics lend a warlike atmosphere to uptown streets and hotel lobbies which appears strangely out of place amid the work-day rush of the average citizen of the metropolis.

Why All This Militarism?

Why all this militarism? Just this. For the twenty-first time since 1893, the Army and the Navy football teams will meet in a battle upon the gridiron here next Saturday when the two service eleven line up on the Polo grounds greenward. Notwithstanding the counter attraction of the Harvard Yale contest at New Haven every ticket for the vast baseball stadium has been sold for several weeks and the gathering of spectators will present all the picturesque quoness for which this gridiron struggle is noted.

Squads of Substitutes Arrive.

The two squads of players and substitutes arrived upon the scene of the coming battle earlier in the day and both ran thru light signal practice in order to familiarize themselves with the lights and the shadows of the field upon which they will meet Saturday. Practice for both academic eleven during the week has been carried out the coaches have made the announcement that all the leading players were in satisfactory condition and that they expected a hard fought contest with plenty of football thrills before the winner was finally evolved.

HEARTY GRIDIRON MEALS IS DISH FOR WEEK-END

Final Contests for Season of 1916 to be Played Saturday Championships at Stake

By Walter H. Eckersall.

Football rosters in all sections of the country will receive hearty gridiron meals Saturday, when the final contest of the 1916 season will be played. In some cases championship will be decided, while in others long standing questions of supremacy will be decided.

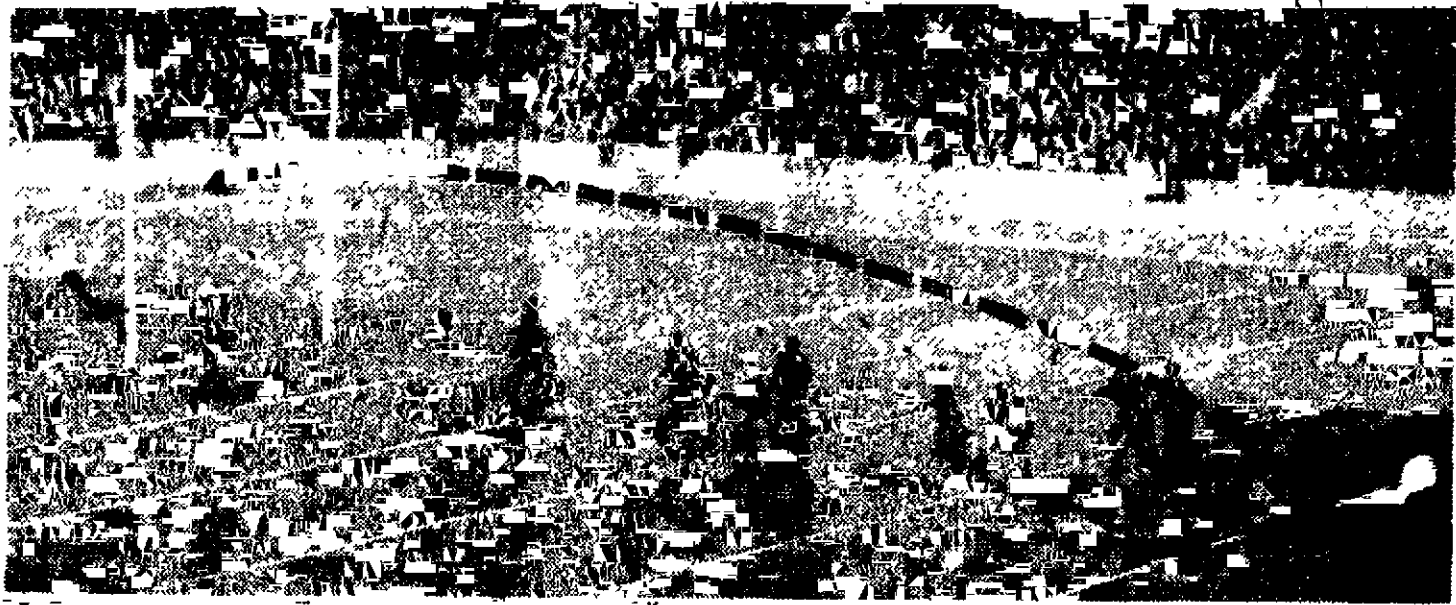

In the west the conference season will be brought to a close with all members going into action. Northwestern and Ohio state will meet for the title at Columbus. The winner will have a clear claim, although critics are not unanimous that they are the best teams in the Big Nine.

While the Purple and Buckeyes are struggling in what should be an evenly fought game, Chicago and Minnesota will meet at Stagg field. These eleven, which have met with unexpected setbacks, will play all the football they have been taught. The Gophers were defeated by Illinois, and Chicago in turn triumphed the down stairs. Then the Gophers came back and trounced Wisconsin, 54 to 0, in one of the biggest surprises of the season. Wisconsin had beaten Chicago, 30 to 7. It should be an evenly fought game, with the odds favoring Minnesota.

Illinois Meets Badgers.

Illinois will make an effort to retrieve its laurels, lost in the Chicago game, by defeating Wisconsin at Madison. The Illini should recover more quickly from their defeat at the hands of the Maroons than Wisconsin from the Minnesota disaster. Illinois

The First Score In The Yale Princeton Game Braden Booting Drop Kick In The Third Period

The first score of the big annual struggle between Princeton and Yale at Princeton, N. J., Saturday is shown in this picture. Braden of Yale has just kicked a field goal in the third period, counting three points. Braden kicked from the 20-yard line. The picture shows him on the ground where he was thrown by Princeton players after his toe struck the ball.

came through its game in much better shape than the Badgers. In the first half the Princeton players, who should be the winner.

Purdue and Indiana will battle Lafayette in what should be an evenly fought struggle. Each has been defeated this season, but because of the bitter rivalry between the institutions, the players will fight until the final whistle blows.

Iowa, the other member of the Big Ten, will clash with Iowa City. By their defeat last Saturday, the Cornhuskers lost what looked to be an undisputed claim to honors west of the river.

The Hawkeyes, encouraged by its opponents' unlooked for defeat, are sure to play hard football in the last game. As the contest will be played on their own field, an evenly fought struggle should result.

The big game of interest west of the Mississippi river will take place at Lawrence between Kansas and Missouri. These eleven have been rivals for years and the game always attracts a large gathering.

Big Games in East.

In the east the fans will divide their attention between the Army-Navy game at New York and the Yale-Harvard contest at New Haven. This is the first time in years that these two games have been played on the same day. The arrangement is a bitter disappointment to many, who always have made it a point to see both games.

POUL BLOW UP TO JUDGES.

Wis., Nov. 23. The delivery of a foul blow by a pugilist abrogates a contract with a boxing club. A question now on hearing before the Wisconsin Supreme Court. It is the first case under the heading boxing law to reach this court.

This point at issue dates back to Dec. 4, 1914, when Bob Moha, Milwaukee, and Mike Gibbons, St. Paul, met in what was to be a ten round encounter, before the club at Hudson, Wis. Referee George Duffy disqualified Moha in the second round for fouling Gibbons. The club refused to pay Moha the 22 per cent of the gross receipts guaranteed in the contract, claiming that by delivering the foul he abrogated the contract. The sum in question is about $1,000.

the college at Jones hall, next Saturday evening.

Arrangements for the evening are now being completed.

The election of a captain for the 1917 team will take place then.

FARGO COLLEGE FOOTBALL CAPTAIN NEXT SATURDAY

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 23. Paul "Happy" Peterson of Moorhead, for three years a regular on the North Dakota Agricultural college football eleven, has been elected captain of the 1917 team.

Peterson, formerly a Moorhead high school star, has been one of the most dependable players on the squad, and his selection comes as a timely recognition of past services.

For two years Peterson pastimed in the Northern league but turned it down. Conditions may be different next spring. For the purpose of sounding public sentiment relative to the entering of the Northern league and applying for a franchise, a committee of business men will be appointed.

LIKE SAILING IN A WATERY CANOE TO GET ON THIS BIG BATTLE

Chicago and Minnesota meet at Stagg field next Saturday. Wisconsin beat Chicago, 30 to 7. Minnesota beat Wisconsin, 54 to 0. What chance have the poor Maroons?

Illinois beat Minnesota, 14 to 9. Chicago beat Illinois, 20 to 7. What chance have the poor Gophers?

NORTHERN LEAGUE BUG RUZZES AT THE HORNS

Grand Forks, N. D., Nov. 23. Last year Grand Forks was offered a berth in the Northern league but turned it down. Conditions may be different next spring. For the purpose of sounding public sentiment relative to the entering of the Northern league and applying for a franchise, a committee of business men will be appointed.

TANNER IS MANAGER CONCORDIA

Moorhead, Minn., Nov. 23. Tanner was last evening elected manager of the Concordia college basketball team. Work on the arrangement of a schedule is already under way and tentative dates are being lined up with Fargo College, the Agricultural College, University, Park Region Luther, Wahpeton Science and Luther College of Iowa. The class league at the college was launched this week.

NORTHWESTERN AND OHIO STATE CLASH SATURDAY

Chicago, Nov. 23. Ohio state and Northwestern will meet Saturday at Columbus to fight out the Big Nine Western conference championship. Both teams enter the fight undefeated, either inside the conference or by outside eleven. Football experts here generally give Northwestern the edge, but it is only a slight one and it is likely that what betting is done on the event will be even money.

GOPHERS TO HAVE BIG BRIGADE OF ROOTERS

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 23. An unusually large crowd of rooters will follow the Minnesota team to Chicago this week for the final game of the season with Stagg's Maroons. This is indicated by the heavy sale of tickets here for the game. The first allotment of seats placed on sale downtown has been all gobbled up. Many students of the University will go to Chicago on a special train which will leave here Friday morning.

KILBANE AND BROCK NEXT MEET CITY CARS

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 23. Kilbane and Brock will be the next offering of the Minneapolis Boxing club if present plans of the promoters meet with success. The date is unsettled. Both of the battlers, however, are ready to sign. The date, it was stated today, depends upon the repairs to the armory.

BASKETBALL WORKS WAY TO FRONT AT UNIVERSITY

Grand Forks, N. D., Nov. 23. Basketball has come into its own at the University of North Dakota and each evening a crop of athletes huddle to the gymnasium to rehearse the methods of handling the elusive sphere. From the verdant freshman to the dignified senior, the attractive sport has drawn its aspirants. Gill will have no trouble in finding five fast men to represent the university.

PETERSON ELECTED MANAGER OF NORTH DAKOTA AGGIES

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 23. Members of the 1916 football team at Fargo college and the athletic faculty of the institution will be guests at the annual football banquet to be tendered them by the athletic association of

MOTHER'S REMEDY FOR BRUISES

Children's Bumps, Sprains and Minor Hurts Quickly Relieved by Sloan's Liniment.

It is the very nature of children to hurt themselves to come crying to mother with little fingers bruised, with heads bumped, with sprained ankles and wrists.

They are painful hurts, too. But their pain and sting can't survive the gentle use of this Liniment. A single application of Sloan's Liniment and the little fellow's bravely kept back tears give way to smiles. His hurt is relieved.

In every home where there are children a bottle of Sloan's Liniment is a necessity.

Aching muscles, rheumatism, lumbago, stiff neck, backache, chilblains, etc., can be effectively relieved with Sloan's Liniment. Cleaner than any ointments or plasters.

Sloan's Liniment can be obtained at all drug stores, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

'Typewriter Service in Rural Communities'

The typewriter is coming into more extended use in rural communities because of the assistance it renders to all classes of people. Here are a few examples of the possibilities of service:

The Farmer: Think of the possibilities of selling produce by the means of typewritten letters sent out to customers? Typewritten letters give the sender a business standing with the people who receive them and also enable the keeping of carbon copies of the correspondence, which many times does away with misunderstandings and lawsuits.

The General Store Merchant: More prompt and courteous treatment is likely to be accorded his orders and correspondence with the City jobber and manufacturer if his letters are typewritten.

In The Home: The boy or girl who is intending to follow a business career can secure no better start than a knowledge of typewriter operating. Children who learn to use the typewriter learn spelling at the same time. The housewife finds it a great convenience in writing recipes and for general correspondence.

The Minister: No Clergyman should be without a typewriter. It is of great assistance in preparing sermons and writing the many letters that a pastor has to write.

"Look Pa, How 'Gets-It' Works!"

LIFTS YOUR CORN RIGHT OFF. NEVER FAILS. "Ever in your life see a corn come out like that? Look at the true skin underneath smooth as the palm of your hand!"

The earth is blessed with the one, simple, painless, never-failing remedy that makes millions of corn-pestered people happy, and that's "GETS-IT." Apply it in 3 seconds. It dries. So people jab and dig at their corns with knives and razors wrap their toes in packages with bandages or sticky tape, make their red and raw with salves. Nothing like this with "GETS-IT." Your corn loosens you lift it off. There's nothing to press on the corn, or hurt. Angels couldn't ask or more. Try it tonight on any corn, callus or wart.

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Bismarck and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Lenhart Drug Co.

NORTH DAKOTA BUTTER MAKERS SHOW UP WELL

North Dakota has reason to be proud of the showing made by its butter-makers at the national convention, reports State Dairy Commissioner E.
A. Greenwood upon his return from Minneapolis. The Flickertail state had a greater number of entries than practically any other state west of the Mississippi, and its scorings were very high, especially when there is considered the comparatively short time in which North Dakota has held any rank as a butter-producing state.
As compared with North Dakota's entries, it may be remarked that California led Pacific coast states with ten; Montana had eight; Illinois six, while Indiana, Vermont, Colorado, Kansas, Pennsylvania, Texas, Ohio, New York, Missouri, Massachusetts, Virginia and Washington ranged in number of entries in the scoring contest from one to three.

The silver cup for the highest score went to Carl Oscarhard of Devils

Lake, who received 94.32 1-3 per cent of a possible hundred points. Leonard Gasper of Hannaford ranged second, with 93.50.

There was an excellent representation of dairymen and butter makers from all parts of the state. Dairy Commissioner Greenwood occupied an important place on the program.

Children like Kimbles, and it builds them up, because of its protein and mineral salts.
